The Cozy Show

What makes you feel cozy and warm in the winter? Please make us some art with that in mind!

As we wrap up an eventful year at Concord Art, we feel grateful, proud, and so excited about the major milestone our community has accomplished: The Keyes Art Barn is open! The Barn has already hosted classes, workshops, special events, rentals and is universally loved. Opening our new space has naturally put us in the spirit of nesting and housewarming just in time for the holidays.

In that spirit, we ask our members:
How do you express “cozy”?

Synonyms:

Snug, comfortable, comfy, toasty, warm, homey.

Sometimes just a small size feels cozy, or a subject can be cozy: a chair, a blanket, a dog, a bird, or a sweater. Landscapes, interiors, still lives, and portraits can evoke warmth too. Abstract shapes, colors, and patterns can trend toward cozy. Of course, actual objects like mugs, mufflers, and mittens are age-old symbols of coziness. We can't wait to see your response to the cozy call! We are open to all interpretations: concrete, abstract, conceptual—you name it.

Please create and price your work with holiday gift giving in mind.
